

Goldman Sachs International City Fellowship

Investment Banking Division Analyst/Associate London

Goldman Sachs is a leading global investment banking, securities and investment management firm that provides a wide range of services worldwide to a substantial and diverse client base including corporations, financial institutions, governments and high net worth individuals.

The Investment Banking Division provides a broad-based global service with expertise in mergers and acquisitions, privatisations and equity, debt, leveraged finance and structured product solutions.

Investment Banking Analyst/Associates help to assist our clients in achieving their strategic and financial objectives. Our Analysts/ Associates play an important role in developing and strengthening our client relationships, participating on our advisory teams and in structuring and executing a full range of financial transactions.

Investment Banking Analyst/Associate you will:

- Guide clients, including companies, governments and private individuals, in their achieving their strategic and financial objectives
- Create and analyze financial models
- Create and prepare client presentations
- Help drive the entire transaction processes
- Assist in structuring transactions
- Participate in and conduct due diligence sessions - a necessary component of financial transactions

Candidate Requirements:

- Ideal candidate will possess a relevant bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification and have an excellent academic and professional record.
- Robust financial and analytical skill set
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- High degree of intellectual curiosity
- Solid work ethic and motivation level
- Strong leadership skills